Join the Illinois Council on Responsible Fatherhood to Discuss Challenges Fathers Face Seeking Involvement in Their Children's Lives

(Chicago, IL) The Illinois Council on Responsible Fatherhood (ICRF) invites you to a free community service seminar Saturday, March 21, 2009 (1:00pm – 3:00pm) at the Oak Park Library: 834 Lake Street Oak Park, IL 60301.

TOP 10: Mistakes Men Make in Divorce

Misunderstandings About Paternity, Child Support, Custody & Visitation Avoiding Common Legal Pitfalls

Why You Should Attend

Whether you are currently married, divorced, separated or have fathered children out of wedlock, whether you are parents or grandparents or are community service providers, you will gather important insights at this seminar that can assist in building stronger, more positive father/child relationships.

This seminar, another in the Council's public forums to raise public awareness of the impact of father absence on children, features speakers who have many years of experience in advocating for fathers and families.

Featured Speaker: Jeffery M. Leving

A high-profile attorney and chairperson of the Illinois Council on Responsible Fatherhood, Mr. Leving helped reunite Elian Gonzalez with his father in Cuba. Subsequently, he was presented the Award of Merit from the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children.

Featured Speaker: Norris Stevenson

A well-known responsible fatherhood advocate, Mr. Stevenson will share his wealth of knowledge on child custody, child support and visitation issues and will clarify many misconceptions about fatherhood rights and responsibilities. Professionally, he serves as the Deputy Administrator for the Illinois Department of Healthcare and Family Services for Field Operations in the Division of Child Support Enforcement.

Do not miss this valuable opportunity to meet these experts and join ICRF in its work to promote the positive involvement of both parents in the lives of their children.

For more information on the seminar and to make your reservations, please call (312) 296-8656.
